We have taken the most popular origami designs from around the world and placed them within the pages of this book. When most people think of "origami," the picture that usually jumps to mind is that of the paper crane. The crane, which represents luck, hope and happiness, has come to be a highly-recognized symbol in the West of the ancient paper-folding tradition.

Completed triangle box

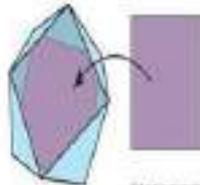

The box can be made to hold with more than one opening.

If you join four corners together you will have a box with a square opening.

If you join four corners together you will have a box with a perfect square opening.

Note: Boxes will make that corners will need a bit of paper to make them in the end with a glue stick.

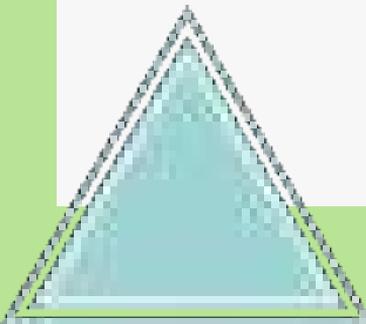

Triangle box

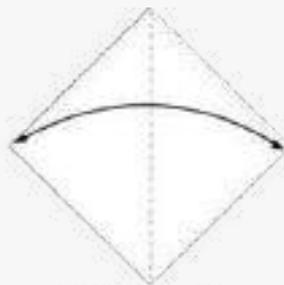

Put out a square piece of paper to give to the bottom of the box. This will cover up the hole and look neat.

The square should be the same size as the opening of the box, so measure the edges to get a perfect fit.

55. A RED FLOWER

Both sides of the hexagon piece of paper are colored.

This is the back of the paper. Turn the paper.

Make mountain and valley-folds over the 6 lines. Unfold each fold after you made one.

First, make 2 valley-folds below, at the 2 angles. Make these folds from the edge to the center of the paper. Then, make 2 mountain-folds on the lines next to the first folds. Continue making valley- and mountain-folds until the 2 lines on top, on the left.

Make a valley-fold over the yellow line.

Unfold the model.

Now the center of the paper has to be folded down over the yellow lines. These are the lines you made with the valley-fold of step 4.

Here a part of the center is folded down already.

Press the outside of the model back in the shape it had in step 4, but now with the center of the paper folded down.
